Paper IV - PBE Business Law and Taxation

Lee Chun Pang

Job title: Accounting Officer

Company: KMS Management & Secretarial Ltd.

Mr. Lee completed the PBE Revision Course – Paper IV Business Law and Taxation at SCOPE, City University of Hong Kong.

Thoughts from Mr. Lee:

Being a CPA is my goal and it would be an important milestone in my career in the accountancy profession. I know there are many alternative ways of achieving this target, but I chose PBE as my articulation path to the QP because this flexible learning mode suits my busy schedule very well.

In my opinion, PBE requires candidates to have good examination techniques. As most candidates are working adults, good time management is essential as well. Success is not easy. You may need to sacrifice your leisure time but when you look back, all your efforts will have been worthwhile.
