

Hong Kong Institute of Accredited Accounting Technicians Limited (HKIAAT)
Policy on reproduction of HKIAAT past examination papers

General policy

The HKIAAT holds the copyright of the examination papers as listed below:

- Book-keeping and Accounts Examination
- Computerised Accounts Examination
- Accounting Technician Examination
- Professional Bridging Examination

No part of these publications may be reproduced, stored in retrieval system, or transmitted, in any form or by any means, electronic, mechanical, photocopying, recording and/or otherwise, without the prior written permission of the HKIAAT.

Written permission to reproduce past examination papers and suggested answers may be given at the discretion of the HKIAAT Board on payment of a copyright fee and is subject to the following general conditions as well as other conditions that may be stipulated by the HKIAAT Board from time to time.

1. The questions (and answers) should be used in text for general teaching purpose and not in revision notes.
2. The reproduction of questions (and answers) must be duly acknowledged in the text at every point where it appears (e.g. "HKIAAT Accounting Technician Examination June 2006) and a general acknowledgement should appear at the beginning of the text, for example:

"All questions from the Accounting Technician Examination are reproduced with the permission of the Hong Kong Institute of Accredited Accounting Technicians Limited."

3. Reproduction of an entire paper is not permitted.
4. A complimentary copy of the text should be sent to the HKIAAT once it is published so as to ensure that all conditions have been complied with.
5. Application for permission to reproduce should be submitted again should the question(s) and answer(s) be used in future editions of the same publication or other publications.
6. The granting of copyright is subject to the prevailing policy and copyright fee as set by the Board of the HKIAAT.

Education institutes may use individual questions of HKIAAT past examination papers (with solutions) after at least one year of their original publication for teaching purpose, without the need of getting written consent from the HKIAAT or to pay any copyright fee. However, due acknowledgement has to be made as appropriate.
